You couldn't ask for a more perfect day for a Ram Bash. The color contrast on the rams was one hundred percent and I still had trouble, must be getting old. To all those who missed the match because you were in the field, on rivers or on the high seas, I hope your luck was good. To everyone else who had honey do's around the house, I hope you got them all finished. Don't forget, our November Ram Bash is our turkey match. As you can see, Haley took first, Aubery took second and Mike Logan took third. For once we had no shoot offs. There were three of us to shoot the buffalo, myself, Haley and Aubery. Haley won by one point I came in at second and Aubery took third. I would like to thank Augie and his wife Suzie for the birthday cake, myself and everyone else enjoyed it. You know, forty years ago I said to myself, seventy-two, no way. Well here I am, where has time gone, I know, hunting, fishing, rifle matches, molding bullets, loading bullets and chasing the ladies. I am still trying to remember why I still like looking at the young ladies. That's enough about my age. Lets thank the ones who set up and painted the rams and the buffalo.

This year I will be giving away a 1st, 2nd and 3rd place trophies for the year. I will be taking the top five scores and making an average. So, all you shooters who need one or two matches to make up your five-match aggregate or to better the scores you have now, you have Nov.and Dec. to do so. Awards will be awarded at the 2012 January ram bash. I'll quit now, have to go change my Depends and go take a nap.
