Looks like the weatherman lied again, but in our favor, he was calling for 30 percent chance of rain Saturday. Our 2013 Watermelon shoot went off without a hitch, where else can you shoot, bullshit, eat heart stopping triple chocolate brownies and eat watermelon. Lets hope the rest of the year will be this great.

From the looks of the scores, a lot of people have been working on their marksmanship, as you can see there was only a four-point spread between first and fifteenth place. We had three shoot-offs today, for 1-2-3,10 and 15 places. I have made an observation this year and this is after the first ram is shot. If a shooter shoots a lousy score on the first ram evidently I will see him going for a brownie, I guess the sugar curbs the depressive state they are in. We had five shooters for the buffalo match, which was won by Ken Burklow. Myself, I shot such a lousy score and in a depressive state I headed for the brownie container, damn, they were all gone. Forrest did a great job of painting rams for us and lets not forget Frances and the great brownies.

Our next match will be on September 7th, see you there. If you have anything to sell or if you are looking for anything let me know and I will put it in the next newsletter.

A U. S. Navy destroyer stops four Mexicans in a rowboat rowing towards California

The Captain gets on the loud- hailer and shouts, "Ahoy, small craft. Where are you headed?" One of the Mexicans puts down his oar, stands up, and shouts, "We are invading the United States of America to reclaim the territory taken by the USA during the 1800's."

The entire crew of the destroyer doubled-over in laughter. When the Captain is finally able to catch his breath, he gets back on the loud-hailer and asks, "Just the four of you?"

The same Mexican stands up again and shouts, "No, we're the last four. The rest are already there!"
