I guess congratulations are in order for Paul Schaapman; he finely took home the bacon this month with a fine score of 38. I was hoping to see an Schaapman 1-2 this month, maybe next month. I am beginning to think my old bones and thin blood just can't take the cold anymore. Maybe what I should do is what the Canadians do and that's haul ass south for the winter or maybe Arizona, I do have a place to stay in Arizona, rent-free. We did get some relief though; Augie and myself went to up range 5 and brought down the heater on Friday. I thing it's about time the Rim Ramers get there own heater. What say you?

We had three shoot offs this month; third place won by Mike Burns, tenth place won by Al Riggs, and fifteenth place won by Rich Aiken. We had quite a few cancellations this month because of various reasons; honey-dos, sick and something else came up. If you are sick please stay at home.

The trophies for 2013 first, second and third placed were given out at the end of the match. First Place- Mike Burns (38.2), second place- Anthony Schaapman (36.6) and third place- Bill Davis (35.8), congratulations to all.

Our next match will be February 15th and it will be cold, but we will have a heater.

You're getting old when "getting lucky" means you find your car in the parking lot.

Don't worry about avoiding temptation. As you grow older, it will avoid you.

A man has reached old age when he is cautioned to slow down by his Doctor instead of by the police.

Old age is having a choice of two temptations and choosing the one that will get you home earlier.

Old age is when you have stopped growing at both ends, and have begun to grow in the middle.

By the time a man is wise enough to watch his step, he's too old to go anywhere.

Old age is when it takes longer to rest than to get tired.

Statistics show that at the age of seventy, there are five women to every man. Isn't that an ironic time for a guy to get those odds?

You're getting old when you don't care where your spouse goes, just as long as you don't have to go along.
