Jay Stafford	28	1
Scott Staylor	22	2
Charles McCreless	18	3

They called for a forty percent chance of rain today, boy, did the weatherman crap in his hat on this one. It was a near perfect day for a rifle match or anything else, even lighting, no wind and the temperature was just right. It is ashamed we can't have days like this in January and February. We had three new shooters to stop by today and try out our match, they hailed from the northern Virginia area and Maryland. Their names are; Robert Zimmerman, Scott Staylor and Charles McCreless. Welcome, hope to see back.

We have a new upcoming shooter by the name of Jonathan Lushbaugh. I think this was his second match and with a lever action rifle he took fourteenth place. See what you can do when you have young eyes, don't smoke, don't drink and don't run around with wild women. Keep up the good work.

We had a record turn out today, thirty shooters showed up, I did not shoot and that left us with twenty-nine shooters on line. There were roughly nine to ten regular shooters that did not show up on Saturday because of prior commitments. This is why it is imperative that when you get your e-mail notice of the pending match you let me know if you are going to shoot, the sooner the better. Bill Davis and I will be having a meeting next month to talk about changes for next year, for the good, I hope.

All said and done the scores were about average this month. First; Dick Kennedy, second; Mike Burns, third; Owen Peters. There were shoot offs for tenth and fifteenth place. Tenth; Mike Logan and fifteenth; Dan VanRoekel. The OF class was won by Augie Kowalik. Hope to see you in September.

If you are looking for anything or if you have anything for sale let me know and I will put it in the next Rim Ram results.

Subject: A Jew and an Arab in a pastry shop

An Arab and a Jew goes into a bakery.
The Arab steals 3 pastries and puts them in his pocket.
He says to the Jew, "See how good I am? The owner didn't see anything!"
The Jew says to the Arab, "I am going to show you there is nobody better than a Jew."
He goes to the owner and says, "Give me a pastry and I will show you a magic trick."
Intrigued, the owner accepts and gives him a pastry.
The Jew swallows it and asks for another one.
The owner gives him another one.
Then the Jew asks for another one and swallows it just the same.
The owner is starting to wonder where the magic trick is and says, "What did you do with the pastry?"
The Jew answers, "Look in the Arab's pocket."
